BLACK HISTORY MONTH

In February we celebrate Black History Month, recognizing important people and events too-long overlooked and advocating for a time of full justice and inclusion. Wondering how Black History Month came about?

Thoughts to consider from the Diocese of NH

Episcopal Missional Communities
Missional communities are new shoots of the vine that offer alternative forms of worship and community. Dinner churches, nature churches, digital churches are all examples of different ways of "being church" that are being raised up here in New Hampshire. Since 2014 we have seen these new sprouts emerge in the form of communities such as Church of the Woods, The Mission in Franklin, The Digital Mission, and Christ the Way Community. Increased support for clergy and lay leaders and providing for gathering space and other assistance is critical to strengthen these communities.
Consider:
How does supporting missional communities outside of the traditional church context enhance who we are as the Episcopal church in New Hampshire?

2022 Stewardship FAITH INTO ACTION

A Letter from Fr. Dave about Stewardship for 2022
Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. John the Baptist Church,
This time last year we were still facing the many challenges of the 2020 global pandemic. The doors of the church were closed but our church was still open, and God was moving in our community through Zoom Morning Prayer services, Bible studies, book groups, vestry meetings, cards, letters, Friday Reflections, and the annual diocesan convention. Church leaders and parishioners alike noted that the year 2020 felt like an exile from community, family, friends, and in-church worship services. Read the full letter here.
